

Staff sergeant AMIT BUNZEL Z"l

A lessone plan in memory of Amit,
A hero of giving, perseverance and love of the land.

Could you also
be heroes?

Have you ever heard of heroes
who gave everything
for others?

What makes someone
a hero to you?

AMIT BUNZEL זל

Sergeant Major
Amit Bunzel, ZL

Amit always made sure that all his soldiers received their food, and only then would he sit down to eat.

Amit had a nickname in the army:
"The Suffering Comrade"
because he always noticed that if one of his unit members had difficulty carrying the military equipment, he would immediately take it and carry it for his comrade, regardless of whether he already had his own equipment, the main thing is that the comrade be okay.

Good value: Infinite giving

Amit was always the first to volunteer and help, even when it was difficult.

Discussion time: The power of giving

How did Amit's giving make others feel

Can you also think of ways in which you can give more?

What things can you do to help others?

IF NOT ME THEN WHO?

The importance of love of country

Amit loved the country very much.
From the age of 16, he began training to reach a special unit in the army and wanted to contribute to it as much as he could.
And when he went out to fight at the beginning of the war,

He didn't hesitate and said: "If not me,
then who?"

He enlisted in a paratrooper patrol and fell in battle in Gaza while defending the country.

A large flag of the State of Israel hung in his room.

Discussion time: Our country

What do you like in Israel?

How can you show love for the Land of Israel?

What can we learn from Amit about his love for the Land of Israel?

The background of the image features the Israeli flag, with its white field and two horizontal blue stripes, and the blue Star of David. A blue and white striped ribbon is draped across the top and bottom of the frame. In the center, a piece of torn, aged paper is taped to a dark wooden surface. The paper contains a quote in Hebrew.

"הרבה אנשים אומרים
שהם רוצים להצליח, אבל לא
כולם מוכנים לשלם את המחיר
שצריך כדי להצליח".

Dealing with a challenge or difficulty

How can you deal with challenges in life?
Amit really wanted to be accepted into an elite unit and for 3 years he tried to get accepted and did not give up until he realized his dream, he was accepted into the paratrooper patrol.
Amit hung a sign on the door of his room, which read:

"A lot of people say they want to succeed, but not everyone is willing to pay the price necessary to succeed."

Thanks to his perseverance and determination, Amit realized his dream.

Discussion time:
paying the price for success

What difficulties do you know from your life?

How do you deal with challenges?

What can be learned from a Amit, who fought and did not give up to fulfill his dream?

Amit aspired to be the best commander for his soldiers and thought a lot about what he should do to be a better person, and wrote in his notebook:

Discussion time:
Which sentence inspires you the most?

The soldier who needs you the most is the soldier who annoys you the most.

Don't forget!
I was also in the same place as the soldier not long ago!

Every soldier and friend needs someone to believe in him.
