

The Zionist Congress XXXVIII

Adopted Resolutions

October 2020 – Heshvan 5781

1. Aliyah and Integration Terminology in the National Institutions

Whereas there is no standardization among the various units within the National Institutions addressing terminology in the sphere of Aliyah, and particularly in English, which is the main operative language; and

Whereas some of these units employ the term “Immigration” (e.g. “Immigration to Israel”) in reference to Aliyah or “immigrant” to refer to Olim, complemented by the national adjectival form for the country from where they came on Aliyah (e.g. “Russian immigrant”). This is a usage devoid of any Zionist or Jewish context and this conceptualization distorts the essence of the Aliyah process and is detrimental to the inherent Zionist and Jewish value of Aliyah. Moreover, it is detrimental to the self-identification of Olim, their motivation to make Aliyah and their successful integration in the State of Israel; and

Whereas this term has a crucial impact on the development of personal identity, creation of narrative and social reality,

Therefore, the Zionist Congress XXXVIII hereby resolves:

1. To discontinue usage of the term “Immigration” in reference to Aliyah throughout the National Institutions and their subsidiary companies. The definition of immigration applies when people who are part of an ethnic national majority group immigrate to a country where they become part of an ethnic or national minority. The Aliyah process is completely opposite in that it refers to Jews in the Diaspora who, qua Jews, are part of a minority in their country of residence and make Aliyah to the State of Israel, where they become part of the State of Israel.
2. Instead of “Immigration” in the English, the Hebrew term “Aliyah” should be used.
3. Instead of “Absorption”, in documents, which the National Institutions control, the term “Integration” should be employed.
4. Any reference to Olim should refrain from referring to the national identity of the country from which they made Aliyah. This means discontinuing usage such as: “American / French / Russian / Argentinian / Ethiopian Olim, etc.” and replacement by usage of: “Olim from the USA / France / Russia / Argentina / Ethiopia.”
5. In the case of veteran Olim, reference should not use the adjectival form of the national identity of the country from which they made Aliyah. In other words, discontinuing usage such as: “American / French / Russian / Argentinian / Ethiopian, etc.” with replacement by usage of: “an Israeli who made Aliyah from the USA / France / Russia / Argentina / Ethiopia,” and so on. This usage of terminology not only serves to describe an identity in an accurate manner – it also expresses a recognition of Aliyah to Israel by veteran Olim.
6. One should be aware, sensitized and alert, whether in dialogue or written materials, to the need to refrain from referring to Olim (new or veteran) in terms of the national identity of their country of origin, from whence they came on Aliyah – thus ensuring there is no negation or exclusion of their Israeli and Jewish identity. Similarly, Olim should not be termed “immigrants” – as if they had simply moved to any other

1 country in the world, rather than the State of Israel. They should be defined in terms
2 of the significance of Zionist Aliyah, this being the return of Jews to the State of Israel.
3 7. To work to inculcate the above principles within every social organization engaged 4 in Zionist and Jewish education, Aliyah and Integration, and activities with Diaspora 5 Jewry.

6

2. Promotion of Aliyah

8 Whereas there is presently a perceptible resurgence in Aliyah and Return home among 9 a number of Diaspora communities; and

10 Whereas the World Zionist Organization is responsible for Aliyah promotion, in general, 11 and Aliyah by choice, in particular,

12 Therefore, the Zionist Congress XXXVIII hereby resolves:

- 13 1. To expand its activity significantly in the sphere of promoting all forms of Aliyah, 14 including Aliyah by choice;
- 15 2. To assist Zionist Federations in the establishment of community Aliyah committees;
- 16 3. To expand the Shlichut deployment system in this area;
- 17 4. To allocate resources to Zionist youth movements to assist their education for Aliyah;
- 18 5. To coordination with the Jewish Agency Aliyah Department in all matters related 19 to Aliyah promotion.

20

3. Zionist Education for Future Generations

22 Whereas:

- 23 1. The next generation of Zionists around the world are under-represented in global 24 and local Zionist institutions; and
- 25 2. Political leaders in Israel and the Diaspora are often products of Zionist youth 26 movements and student groups, which is proof of their importance in leadership 27 development around the Zionist world,

28 Therefore, the Zionist Congress hereby resolves that:

- 29 1. The World Zionist Organization shall convene a Zionist Youth Congress to bring 30 together the best and brightest of the next generation of Zionist leadership around 31 the world between ages 18-25. This will be the age range of the future young Zionist 32 leadership;
- 33 2. The Zionist Youth Congress shall receive the appropriate funding to function at the 34 highest level and commensurate with its importance in the Zionist world;
- 35 3. The Zionist Youth Congress shall function in a manner that includes the historical 36 Zionist youth movements but shall make extra effort to include and engage Zionist 37 youth around the world who are unaffiliated with Zionist youth movements or other 38 organizations that are formally affiliated with the World Zionist Organization.

4. Hebrew Language and Culture

Whereas the Hebrew language is the language of the Jewish people and, as such, a cornerstone of Jewish religion, heritage and culture, and renewed Israeli experience; and

Whereas the revival of the Hebrew language constitutes one of the central components in the development of the Zionist movement and the fulfillment of the Zionist vision; and

Whereas knowledge of Hebrew is a fundamental component of Jewish identity and outreach to draw the younger generation closer to Jewish heritage and identification with the Jewish people and the State of Israel; and

Whereas the World Zionist Organization considers itself entrusted with the inculcation of the Zionist idea among the young generation in the Diaspora, and is therefore obligated to inculcate, strengthen and foster Hebrew language and culture,

Therefore, the Zionist Congress XXXVIII:

1. Instructs the Zionist Executive to plan a comprehensive work program for Hebrew language and culture instruction across all sectors of the Jewish public in the Diaspora.
2. The work program shall be varied, pluralistic contemporary and adapted for all age groups, especially the young generation.
3. The Zionist Executive shall work to implement this Resolution.

5. Committee to Recommend Steps for Inclusion of More Voices within the Zionist Movement

Whereas the diversity of our stories, ethnicities, religious traditions, political viewpoints, and much more, act to strengthen the Jewish people and the Zionist Movement are strengthened; and,

Whereas the Zionist movement can do more to include and represent the voices of Mizrahi Jews, Sephardic Jews, Ethiopian Jews, Jews from the Former Soviet Union, Jews of color in the Diaspora, and many other communities,

Therefore, the Zionist Congress XXXVIII hereby resolves:

1. To establish a commission, which will report on where the Zionist movement can improve in its representation and inclusion of diverse Zionist communities, and recommend concrete steps to accomplish this goal.
2. To invite Zionist organizations representing the above-mentioned communities and others to appoint a representative on their behalf to the commission.

6. The Unity of the Jewish People

Whereas the strength of the Zionist Movement is inextricably linked to the strength and “vitality” of the Jewish people and Jewish communities in Israel and throughout the world; and

Whereas the unity of the Jewish people is one of the core foundations of Zionism, as expressed by The Jerusalem Program; and

1 Whereas The Jerusalem Program stresses the role of Zionism in nurturing mutual 2 Jewish responsibility; and

3 Whereas The Jerusalem Program recognizes that the importance of mutual respect for 4 the multi-faceted Jewish people is firmly rooted in the foundations of Zionism,

5 Therefore, the Zionist Congress XXXVIII hereby resolves:

- 6 1. To assure mutual respect for the diversity of voices within the Zionist Movement.
- 7 2. Therefore, to strengthen Zionism, it hereby prohibits communications, materials 8 and/or programs, which denigrate or demean other Zionist organizations and/or the 9 individual members of other Zionist organizations, for reasons of differences in 10 theology or observance of Jewish traditions.
- 11 3. Further, members of the World Zionist Organization shall not weaken the Zionist 12 Movement by personal attacks against leaders of other Zionist organizations for any 13 of the reasons detailed above.

14

15 7. Empowering the Council of World Zionist Youth Movements
16 and their Hagshama Movements

17 Whereas the Council of World Zionist Youth Movements and the 18 Hagshama Movements serve as a bridge between youth and young adults both in Israel 19 and outside of Israel; and 20 Whereas investing now in future Zionist leadership ensures the long-term continuity of 21 the Jewish community's relationship with the State of Israel; and 22 Whereas educating about Zionism is a must in order to develop young leaders; and 23 Whereas these movements have the ability and connections to reach out to every 24 Jewish home in the Diaspora via a network of clubs / branches / regions in hundreds of 25 communities,

26 Therefore, the Zionist Congress XXXVIII hereby resolves:

27 To increase and empower the support and professional guidance of all the World 28 Zionist Youth Movements, by providing the necessary designated financial aid and 29 other help, to ensure the continuation of essential projects.

30 It is further resolved that the aspiration is to create stronger connections between the 31 National Institutions for this common purpose.

32 It is resolved that there will be full synchronization between all the different 33 professional bodies in the World Zionist Organization, needed to achieve this goal.

34

35 8. Combating Anti-Zionism on Campus

36 Whereas the convergence of hostility to the State of Israel, rising campus intolerance, 37 and social media harassment campaigns has created a toxic environment on some 38 campuses—leading, to violations of academic freedom and fair treatment, it is 39 important that university administrators and faculty worldwide develop policies and 40 the nerve to speak forcefully against the bullying, online or in person, based on political 41 ideologies; and

42 Whereas Rose Ritch, a Jewish undergraduate at the University of Southern California
43 recently resigned under pressure as Vice President of the Undergraduate Student

1 Government following a campaign that featured denunciations of her support for 2 Israel; and

3 Whereas Ritch is far from the only college student who has been harassed in recent 4 years for their pro-Israel politics, her story is an important reminder that educational 5 institutions should actively promote discussion about contentious issues like the 6 Middle East. They should encourage students to become informed about the history 7 and nature of Zionism, which, according to standard definitions, is the movement of 8 the Jewish people for self-determination in a land or state of their own.

9 Therefore, the Zionist Congress XXXVIII hereby resolves:

10 That the Education Department of the World Zionist Organization join with Zionist
11 Youth Movements and Jewish Student Unions around the world to implement further 12 educational activities for university and college campuses to combat the ongoing anti-13 Zionist attacks suffered by Jewish and pro-Zionist students. In the first instance, the 14 response to Antisemitism and anti-Zionism should be led by students themselves.

15

16 9. Establishing Rules for Exclusion from the World Zionist Organization

17 Whereas the Zionist movement’s strength is directly impacted by its ability to bring 18 together the broadest-based and largest sectors possible of the Jewish people in joint 19 endeavor; and

20 Whereas from time to time, under various auspices of the Zionist movement, a range 21 of resolutions of one type or another have been passed calling for the exclusion of one 22 or other entity or body from the Zionist movement; and

23 Whereas the process of exclusion from the Zionist movement is one of serious 24 consequence and has not hereto been regulated in the WZO Constitution or the 25 Regulations for its Implementation,

26 Therefore, the Zionist Congress XXXVIII hereby resolves:

27 Without detriment to provisions presently in force in the matter of the Zionist
28 Federations’ and inter-territorial Zionist Organizations’ membership in the World
29 Zionist Organization, not to take any steps or initiative to exclude any entity or body 30 from the Zionist movement – other than by means of a process that shall be 31 determined in compliance with the provisions of the Constitution of the World Zionist 32 Organization and the Regulations for its Implementation. The Executive is called upon 33 to act promptly to implement this Resolution.

34 This Resolution shall remain in force for a period of 24 months.
